Daisy

Breed: Jack Russell Terrier

Gender: Female

Age: Elder

Reward: no

Location: Leicester, 28 Serenity Ln

Description: This sweet girl is temporarily being called Daisy, but she had no collar. She looks to be a mixed breed, but looks similar to a Jack Russel. She is a small dog, and very very sweet. She seems to be mostly deaf, and maybe partially blind (visible cataracts). She was covered in fleas, but after a flea bath and some meds she recovered to be a very playful dog, despite not having the easiest time getting around. It seems that she has had a home before, I already posted around my neighborhood to find her owners and I have not had anyone reach out.
