Description: Adult female cat lost while staying at a friends, she is a medium hair tuxedo with very long white whiskers. She has a white chin, white chest, and white belly. Two short Sox on her front feet and two longer Sox on her back feet. Other than that she is black with very bright yellow/gold eyes.

She's friendly but may be a little skittish with new humans. We found her collar so she isn't wearing it but she is chipped to Asheville. She is very loved and we want her home.
